LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY
Lexington is the second-largest city in Kentucky with a population of approximately 300,000 and is known as the “Horse Capital of the World”. Located in the heart of the Bluegrass, white fences line the countryside and stately horse farms house some of the world’s greatest thoroughbred horses. Lexington is home to the Kentucky Horse Park, historic Keeneland Racetrack and the Red Mile race course and is an active university town – home to the University of Kentucky and Transylvania University.

With something to offer for everyone, from sports to fine arts and a variety of worship centers, Lexington is home to many thriving organizations including a professional orchestra, philharmonic, two ballet companies, professional theatre, museums, choral organizations and the historic Lexington Opera House.

Providing an excellent place to raise your family, Lexington offers a wide variety of public and private schools, which are ranked among the top third of schools nationwide, and a low crime rate. Lexington plays an integral part in the region as the leading medical and commercial center, creating a healthy economical climate with low unemployment and cost of living. The city is strategically located at the intersection of Interstates 64 and 75 and is approximately 60 miles from Louisville, Kentucky and Cincinnati, Ohio. Accessible by air, the local airport offers more than 80 daily flights to major cities throughout the country.

NICHOLASVILLE, KENTUCKY
Positioned just minutes from the south side of Lexington, in the heart of Kentucky’s Bluegrass region, Nicholasville is among the fastest growing cities in the state. Nicholasville has a population of approximately 30,000 and is within a two hour drive of Louisville, Cincinnati and several state parks and lakes. Known for its scenic beauty, magnificent thoroughbred horse farms, music heritage and historical significance, Nicholasville offers affordable housing, excellent education and a flourishing economy.

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY
Richmond, Kentucky is positioned in the heart of Kentucky’s Bluegrass Region, and has a population of approximately 30,000. Richmond is a short 20 to 30 minute drive south of Lexington and is known for its rural beauty, significant history, local university and numerous parks and golf courses. Richmond offers very affordable housing, excellent schools and a variety of recreational opportunities. Please visit richmond.ky.us for more information.
